Liturgy of the Word

Opening Prayer

God our Father, Â
may we love you in all things and above all things and reach the joy you have prepared for us beyond all our imagining.

First Reading:Â Â Jeremiah. 38:4-6.8-10

The king's leading men spoke to the king.Â "Let Jeremiah be put to death: he is unquestionably disheartening the remaining soldiers in the city, and all the people too, by talking like this.Â The fellow does not have the welfare of this people at heart so much as its ruin." "He is in your hands as you know," King Zedekiah answered, "for the king is powerless against you." So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the well of Prince Malchiah in the Court of the Guard, letting him down with ropes.Â There was no water in the well, only mud, and into the mud Jeremiah sank.

Ebed-melech came out from the palace and spoke to the king, "My lord king," he said, "these men have done a wicked thing by treating the prophet Jeremiah like this: they have thrown him into the well where he will die." At this the king gave Ebed-melech the Cushite the following order: "Take three men with you from here and pull the prophet Jeremiah out of the well before he dies."

This is the word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 39

R.Â Â Â Lord, come to my aid.

Second Reading:Â Â Hebrews.Â 12:1-4

With so many witnesses in a great cloud on every side of us, we too, then, should throw off everything that hinders us, especially the sin that clings so easily, and keep running steadily in the race we have started.Â Let us not lose sight of Jesus, who leads us in our faith and brings it to perfection: for the sake of the joy which was still in the future, he endured the cross, disregarding the shameful of it, and from now on has taken his place at the right of God's throne.Â Think of the way he stood such opposition from sinners and then you will not give up for want of courage.Â In the fight against sin, you have not yet had to keep fighting to the point of death.

This is the word of the Lord.

Gospel:Â Â St. Luke 12:49-53

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have come to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were blazing already!Â There is a baptism I must still receive, and how great is my distress till it is over!

"Do you suppose that I am here to bring peace on earth?Â No, I tell you, but rather division.Â For from now on a household of five will be divided: three against two and two against three; the father divided against the son, son against father, mother against daughter, daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, daughter - in - law against mother - in - law."

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Not always a peacebringer

Jesus talks so much about reconciliation forgiveness and love
that we may wonder
about all his words of division.

He says he will not always bring peace,
but because of him people will be divided,
even in families.

Where now is the calm in the storm,
or the offer of rest and refreshment?

We know that we can be divided about what is right and just.
Families and societies
can be divided about
the cares of life,
the cares of marriage,
the care of the young,
the care of the poor.

In the face of poverty and hunger,
of abuse and violence,
the word of Jesus is divisive,

for it highlights the rights of all,
born and unborn,
rich and poor,
young and old,
sick and well,
to the gifts of the earth,
the gifts of wealth,
and the care of society.

While we love all,
we want justice for all,
and our following of Jesus
may bring division.

May we be encouraged to do what is right, strong to take the side of God, and open to reconciliation and compassion for all.
