

Solemnity of All Saints - Thursday 1st November

On the Solemnity of All Saints the Church celebrates all those who behold the beatific vision in heaven. Many of the saints are known to us by name and still more who are anonymous to us enjoy the company of God.

On this day the pilgrim Church on earth contemplates the Church triumphant in heaven and we dedicate ourselves to living the holy lives that may lead us in turn to our heavenly homeland.

The Solemnity is a Holy Day of Obligation. Mass times in the parish are as follows:

Church of St John the Baptist

Wednesday: 7.00 pm (Vigil)

Thursday: 7.00 pm

Church of St Patrick

Thursday: 10.00 am
