

Statement from Christian leaders

In the wake of the killings in Antrim and Craigavon Christian leaders, including Cardinal Seán Brady, have issued a joint statement entitled “Together for Good”™. It offers some reflections and suggestions for people in light of these events. You can download and read the statement by clicking here .