Liturgy of the Word

Â

First Reading:Â Â Acts. 2:1-11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them.Â They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Â Â Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language.Â They were amazed and astonished.Â â€œSurelyâ€™ they said â€œall these men speaking are Galileans?Â How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes, and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphlyia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrena; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.â€™

This is the word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm:Â Ps. 103

R. Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading:Â Rom. 8:8-17

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God.Â Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you.Â In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him.Â Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

Â Â So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives.Â If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

Â Â Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God.Â The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, â€œAbba, Father!â€™Â The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are the children of God.Â And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

This is the word of the Lord

Gospel:Â Â John

Jesus said to his disciples

â€œIf you love me you will keep my commandments.
I shall ask the Father and he will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever.

â€œIf anyone loves me he will keep my word,
and my Father will love him,
and we shall come to him
and make our home with him.
Those who do not love me do not keep my words.
And my word is not my own;
it is the word of the one who sent me.
I have said these things to you

GLOBAL DAY OF PRAYER CELEBRATION: Sunday 27th May, 3 p.m. - 4.30 p.m. at Craigavon Leisure Centre, Brownlow Road, Craigavon. Persons of all denominations are invited to participate. As people come together it is an opportunity to join in prayer that God will be glorified in all that happens in our lives, our country and our nation. The Zephaniah Dancers from Portadown will be doing some creative dance to worship songs and will include some Irish dancing.

Children are always welcome in our Churches to Masses and other liturgies. Parents and other adults who accompany children to Church are asked to keep children under reasonable control so as not to be a distraction to others. All Parishioners and visitors to the Churches have a responsibility to keep a prayerful atmosphere at all times.

Anniversaries left in late for inclusion in the Bulletin should be left in the Sacristies for inclusion in the List of the Dead.

Renew - refresh

Holy Spirit,
refresh the face of the earth;
refresh like the cool wind through
humid air,
refresh like cooling rain in
stagnant water,
refresh like greenery in the burnt desert -
and refresh tired hopes,
dull love,
broken trust,
with gentle confidence
with new visions of each other,
with a belief in goodness,
refresh and renew us.

Refresh our countries,
with compassion in politics,
with peace based on justice,

with respect for the dignity of all,
and a genuine care for those in need,
and policies to end inequality.

Refresh families with tolerance, communities with openness,
whole neighbourhoods with involvement;

Refresh our prayer with your love,
our sorrow with your forgiveness,
our generosity with your call.

Refresh us,
renew us,
renew the face of the earth.
